The following information was obtained from a review of the records of the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, for the period 1900 to 1950. The records show that the land in question was acquired by the United States Government in 1900, and was then transferred to the Bureau of Land Management in 1909. The land was then surveyed and divided into sections, and the sections were then sold to private individuals. The land was then used for various purposes, including agriculture, grazing, and timber. The land was then transferred to the Bureau of Land Management in 1950, and has since been managed as a public land.

Very truly yours,

Director, Bureau of Land Management
